ORDER:

The Women's Welfare Officer, has made the following proposals in connection with the admission of underaged candidates and retention of certain categories of children admitted into the Service Home at Madras:-

(i) That the concession in regard to the admission of hard cases of underaged candidates, i.e. below 11 years of age allowed in the case of the Home at Cuddalore may be extended to the Service Home at Madras:

(ii)That the stipend and cloth allowance for orphan children without either parents may be enhanced from Rs.15/- to Rs.25/- per mensem and from Rs.10/- per annum to Rs.20/- per annum respectively when they reach their twelfth year:

(iii) That the Children without either parents may be treated as adult inmates when they are 18 years old and that their stipends and clothing allowances may be sanctioned as for the other adult inmates of the Home:

(iv) That the strength of the children in the cases noted below may be fixed at 25 and it need not be included in the sanctioned strength of 75 children for the Home:

(a) that the poor children of ex-orphan inmates who are undergoing training (Midwifery training or teacher's training or Needle work training) may be allowed to stay till their mothers complete their training course, i.e. 18 months in the case of Midwifery and 2 years in the case of the other two training courses:

(c) that the unmarried female orphan adult inmates who take up employment may be allowed to remain in the Home for 3 months after the employment of the parent or till the return arrangements to take her children whichever is earlier; and

(d) that the children without either parents (or, as in the case of certified school children, be allowed to remain in the Home indefinitely.

2/- The Government have examined the above proposals and pass the following orders:-

Item (a) above The proposal of the Women's Welfare Officer is accepted. He is however informed that this concession should not be made public.

Item (b) above The Government consider that it is too early to revise the rates of the staff and cloth allowance sanctioned to the inmates in the G.O. third cited. The proposal of the Women's Welfare Officer is negatived.

Item (iii) above The proposal of the Superintendent is ~~further~~ accepted subject to the condition that such inmates are counted against the sanctioned strength of the adult inmates in the Service Home.

Item (iv) above The proposal is accepted subject to the condition that the total number of children of the three categories to be retained in the Service Home, does not at any time exceed ten. This sanction is in addition to the sanction strength of 50 children for the Service Home.
